

"The Rose Maiden" Will Make Her Appearance in Narberth, Friday, April 15

The Story.

"The Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her, while she sleeps, into the form of a beautiful girl. Under the name of Roseblossom, she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks, and meets with a girl who, having been betrayed and deserted by her lover, loses her senses and dies broken-hearted. But, undeterred from her search, Roseblossom becomes the wife of a forester with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their Queen, and sing a farewell. The closing chorus praises God, who in His wisdom has given even the Rose its thorn."

This story is a standard production by Frederic H. Cowen, and will be told to you on Friday evening, April 15, at 8.15 o'clock in the School Auditorium in beautiful harmony by 75 voices, 14 soloists and a 10-piece orchestra, composing the Narberth Choral Society.

The melody and theme running through this entire cantata are so fantastically appealing that with the deepest regret one is made to realize the finale is at an end and is gently reminded that—"They that rejoice must sorrow, and they that love must part, . . . but yet, O God, we praise Thee, who blindest night and morn. Too lovely were Thy roses were they with a thorn."

The Narberth Choral Society deserves unstinted credit and support in its splendid undertakings, and is to be certainly congratulated upon such progress that renders it capable of putting on this beautiful production in six weeks of ensemble work. Narberth is unusually fortunate in having a professional director in its midst such as Prof. Nice, who has shown a most creditable community spirit in giving so much time, work and effort toward the shaping of this Chorus. Our hats are off to you, Prof. Nice! Long may you be among us!

It has been definitely decided to render this cantata in Narberth only the one night, as the Board of Directors and the Musical Director decided it would be putting the Chorus under too much strain to sing the oratorio two nights in succession. It is probable that a second rendition of "The Rose Maiden" will be given for some charitable purpose in another Main Line town nearby, at which time those Narberthians who will not have been able to attend on the 15th can have the opportunity of hearing it in another locality.

The soloists have been selected from the Chorus, and include: Mrs. Howard Hoffman, Mrs. Wm. T. Taylor, Mrs. A. S. Longbottom, Mrs. H. S. Bradley, Miss Ruth E. Prescott, Mrs. Katherine R. Trowbridge, Mrs. Arthur Staples, Mr. J. D. Murphy, Mr. H. P. Carr, Mr. Joseph McGarrity, Mr. Louis Eashby, Mr. F. R. Mitchell, Mr. George Rose.

The admission to "The Rose Maiden" will be $1.00, and tickets can be secured from any member of the Chorus or by telephoning the Secretary, Narberth 627-W.

Therefore be it resolved by all ye who enjoy, and who expect none but the best of music, that upon Friday evening, April 15, at 8.15 o'clock, ye shall be gathered among the throng at the School Auditorium to witness a musical triumph for the always progressive town of Narberth, so that ye shall be spared the regrets of having missed one of the best productions ever featured in, near, round, or about this borough of Narberth.

Friday, April 15, at 8.15 P. M., School Auditorium. Admission, $1.00.

Community Club Notes

MUSICAL AFTERNOON MEETING OF APRIL 5

The Women's Community Club of Narberth listened to a charming talk by Mrs. Maurice J. Babb, who studied the violin with an old master in Bohemia. Her subject was, "Why Music is the Soul of Bohemia." This country is now known as Czecho-Slovakia, a truly Slavic republic surrounded by Teutons. The country is remote, inaccessible and largely agricultural. Nobles are in power. They support wonderful forestry schools, which train the peasants in many arts. They are all taught music from childhood to old age. They make inexpensive violins from the old wood of their lovely, perfect forests. Nearly everyone owns and plays a violin. Music is near and dear to all. Dvorak's themes are from the gloriously sweet notes of the wonderful song birds of these forests. Purity of tone means much to these peasants, and the accuracy of construction of the violins produces only pure and lovely tones. The children in school all sing, the young men and maids are well trained in music during their most receptive age. Grandparents, parents and children play together.

They have many orchestras and give concerts and dances. Folk songs founded on legends of the old castles furnish many an evening's entertainment. Sculpture, painting, literature and music are created there, but we never hear of them. The President, Professor Masaryk, has an American wife, so we hope to know more of this art in the future.

Mrs. Wood gave a review of Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln" now being played at the Broad Street Theatre.

Mrs. Batchelor read from one of John Burroughs' writings.

Miss Campbell entertained the Club by her delightful talk on "Songs of My Youth." First she told of Scotch and Irish songs her mother sang, then of London ballads. Schooldays brought morals and sentiment into the ballads. Big brother's nonsense in time was followed by a period of tearful and lugubrious songs. She learned all the national airs and words. Then came Civil War and Ethiopian songs, of which "My Old Kentucky Home" is the best. She closed with an original "poem" bringing in the titles of many old songs, ridiculing the absurdities and impossibilities contained in their lines.

Alumni Reorganization Meeting a Success

PLANS MADE FOR FUTURE ACTIVITIES—NEW CHAIRMEN APPOINTED AND BY-LAWS REVISED.

A special business meeting of the Narberth High School Alumni Association was held Monday night in the High School Auditorium.

The new by-laws, as prepared by the Executive Board, were presented to the members, and passed with but minor changes. These new by-laws bring the organization of the Alumni strictly up to date, and will be used as a basis for a general waking-up.

Although the meeting was well advertised, other and apparently more important matters kept many of the members away, as many were absent who usually are interested in Alumni activities. There were many members from the classes since 1916, excepting 1920, of which class no one was present. In the older classes, however, so many of the graduates live at a distance from Narberth that they were unable to attend, but these members are usually on hand for the annual meetings.

If the enthusiasm shown by the members present is any criterion, the rejuvenated Alumni Association has a bright future.

Minstrel Show

Well Received

BOY SCOUTS' ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT A BIG SUCCESS—VARIED AND INTERESTING PROGRAM RENDERED.

Our Narberth Boy Scouts again covered themselves with glory last Friday night in their annual entertainment and minstrel show in Elm Hall. The hall was crowded to the doors, and the applause was generous for every number on the program. And on last Monday evening the boys went up to Wayne, and repeated their entertainment, under the auspices of the Wayne Scouts, to the accompaniment of more applause and appreciation.

Too much credit, therefore, cannot be given to Scoutmaster Fred. Patten and his wide-awake band of Scouts. They proved themselves a credit to the Scout movement and to the town of Narberth, and provided two good evenings of fun and enlightenment for about 1,500 people.

For the entertainment was not all merry making. Several of the numbers on the program were educational, in that they explained about the splendid work that the Scouts are doing and what they plan to do in the future.

A Scout Program All the Way Through.

It was a Scout evening in every particular. The program opened with a

All Star Win From Tennis Team 49 to 14

BUT IT WAS A GREAT NIGHT FOR THE SINGLE TENNIS MEN AT THAT—MARTIN AND LARDIE DAVIS GIVE FINE EXHIBITION AS "SHOOTING STARS."

As far as we were able to figure out from the mass of statistics furnished by the three official score keepers, about the only glory that the basketball team of the Narberth Tennis Association got out of the game with the Narberth All Stars in the Y. M. C. A. gym last Wednesday night belonged to the Single Men. For out of the 14 points scored by the tennis players, 12 were gathered in by the single members of the team, so at the end of the game the scores really were:

All Stars, 49; Narberth Tennis Association, 14.

Single Tennis Men, 12; Married Tennis Men, 2.

Of course, if we stuck to the By-Laws and Constitution of the Sporting Writers' Union, Local No. 789, we wouldn't say anything about this by-product score, so to speak, but in view of the results of the games played between the Married and Single Men during the past months, this is about the only way that it is possible to record the fact that for once the Single Men came out on top!

A Regular Maelyn Arbuckle.

As for the game itself, it was certainly worth four times the price of admission. And Captain Gene Davis certainly knew what he was doing when he named his team the All Stars. Take that man Martin, for example. He doesn't think any more of shooting a field goal with one hand, from three-quarters of the way down the cage, than Maelyn Arbuckle thought of rolling a cigarette with one hand in "The Round Up." And Dr. "Lardie" Davis is just about as "careless." Nor is Bill Durbin very much more of a respecter of "the other side." Which is not to say, either, that the other All Stars are "beginners" by any means. Every one of them played a star game.

But all joking aside, the work of Lardie Davis and Lou Martin, both former captains of U. of P. basketball teams, was an exhibition of skillful playing well worth seeing. The case

Editorial

To the Editor of Our Town:

As we have had a March that was like an on-her-good-behavior April, perhaps we may have an April like a well-behaved May, allowing for sudden outbreaks like that of March 29, with its drop of nearly 60 degrees, ground frozen, blossoms withered, magnolia bloom turned a rusty brown, all nature seeming to reel from this blow in the face.

However, there are other buds yet to break forth, and the injury will not be so great as it appears. Fossythia blossoms still hold their yellow, tulips are unhurt, and even hyacinths and narcissi in bloom seem unaffected save in their stems, which are weakened.

There has been great temptation to make gardens in March, and where the ground was dry and crumbly it was all right to take a chance. Despite the changes in temperature, hot suns and driving rains, onions and peas planted the 21st were up in twelve days and are doing well, and it is time to make a second planting.

March has also been a fine time to make or enlarge flower beds, using the sod to repair poor sections or cover unoccupied strips. All this work makes a fine gain on the busy days of late spring.

CAMOLEN.

WE COMMUTERS.

The commuter is like a barometer—he reflects the changes in the weather.

In winter, when the pavements are treacherous, and the atmosphere is filled with juvenile snowballs, the commuter curses the fatal day that brought him to live in "The backwoods." But in these balmy and ambition-destroying days he inflates his chest and looks down with infinite pity upon his urban friends.

There is a certain feeling of exhilaration in flying through Merion station on the 5.13 that, perhaps, can be felt in no other way. The rose-covered banks, the sharp curves and the old bridges become so familiar to us that it would be hard to imagine a normal existence under any other conditions.

We are reminded of that little gem from Christopher Morley's "Travels in Philadelphia:"

Along that green embowered track My heart throws off its peddler's pack In memory commuting back

Now swiftly and now slowly— Ah! lucky people, you, in sooth Who ride that caravan of youth The local to Paoli!

"THE ROSE MAIDEN."

Next Friday night will be our first opportunity to hear the Narberth Choral Society.

This organization represents the biggest musical effort yet made by the people of Narberth. "The Rose Maiden," their first production, promises to be a treat for all Narberth music-lovers. Let's be on hand, and show the Choral Society that we are in back their work.

TROUBLE WITH HER CAR.

On last Friday Mrs. B. George Constantine started out in a new Ford delivery car used in connection with the Goodwear Shoe Repairing business. The car seemed normal in every respect and behaved fine until near the stone wall at the western end of Windsor avenue.

Mrs. Constantine, who had only had a very few lessons in chauffeuring, elected to make a left turn. The car seemed only too willing and tried to run over the curb and sidewalk in its haste to get around the corner quickly. "Not so fast!" said Mrs. Constantine, and gave it a yank the other way. This seemed to confuse the thing, and in a fraction of a second it seemed to go to the right, left and straight ahead—but there was a sudden stop when it arrived head on against Miss Gibson's high stone wall. A few of the front projections were much changed, but the car was still able to navigate and the driver only received a shaking up. Two Narberth men assisted Mrs. Constantine and her car to the garage.

The Brass Knocker

RECOLLECTIONS, OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS BY AN OLD TIMER.

We see that the correspondent for the Junior Branch of the Women's Community Club has felt that our notice of their refreshments demanded an answer. If the correspondent desires to settle amicably, we would be pleased to call and talk it over. We are, of course, assuming from being a member of the Junior Branch that the young lady is unmarried, and from being a resident of Narberth that she is pretty.

In Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland" Alice remarks that although she had often seen a cat without a grin, she had never seen a grin without a cat. At the corner of Narberth and Woodbine avenues there is a sight almost as amazing. A beautiful flight of many colored stone steps leading from the sidewalk to a vacant lot. We have often seen houses without steps, but we never before saw steps without houses.

We noticed in the last issue that the editor denies being the author of this column. Of all the 42 carat, iron-bound nerve that is the limit. As if he could ever write anything half so good as these articles. The one of the human failings which we most dislike is conceit.

Attached to one of the telephone poles on Essex avenue is what was once a basketball goal. It is now merely two boards and a rusty iron hoop. Walking along the street this gives one the impression of having unknowingly strolled upon someone's basketball floor. The other goal, however, is not to be found.

On the 7.29 one night last week a gentleman (he had on a dress suit) informed his friend and incidentally the whole car that he was going to the "Mask and Wig" and then afterward to a dance. We were glad to know it, but more publicity might have been obtained by sending the news in to the Fireside.

Where, oh where, are the borough lines and grades. On Essex avenue the sidewalk runs along about 3 feet above the street for some distance, and then suddenly drops to a level of a foot or so above the street. Over on Iona avenue there are two sidewalks in front of some of the houses, one near the curb and one near the house. Similar examples may be found on any street in the town.

Someone posing as the American Legion called a friend of ours on the phone some time ago and without any announcement of who was calling, asked our friend if he were an ex-service man. Our friend replied that he was, and then asked, "Who is this?" To which the voice replied, "This is the American Legion." Our friend claims he heard only one voice.

Spring has come. This fact was brought to our notice by the increasing number of bums on the cigar store corner. If any of our readers wish to get a fair idea of the temperature and do not have access to a thermometer, a simple counting of the loafers will give a close approximation. There is pretty nearly one for each degree Fahrenheit.

Mr. W. A. Maxwell, the Fly Inspector, will follow up the reports of the Inspection Committees, which are on the lookout in each section from Overbrook to Paoli for places where flies will breed. These are reported to the office of the Suburban Association, and then Mr. Maxwell sees to it that everything is done to eliminate the nuisance.

The Committees are reporting hearty co-operation on the part of everybody, and the Committees feel that it will only be necessary to call attention to the breeding places in order to have them cleaned up. However, if any are negligent of the health of others by refusing to remedy any nuisance, the Fly Deputy will have the full authority of all the Boards of Health, as well as the State Department of Health, to compel action.

The storekeepers are co-operating heartily, especially where food is exposed for sale. They realize that the fly fills up his body with liquid predigested food and then flies around looking for a place to light. As he does he regurgitates all he had absorbed, and then tries to reabsorb it. In no instance does he succeed in getting it all back. If he lights on food, milk bottles, the nipple of a baby's milk bottle, and every other place, he leaves deadly germs of typhoid, diarrhea, enteritis, cholera, dysentery, paratyphoid, fever, parasitic infections and other disorders.

Dr. Edward Martin, Commissioner of Health, states that this is very largely the reason for the death rate of infants taking a leap upward during the summer.

The inspector will ask all the dealers in food supplies to carry out the regulation of the different Boards of Health, which reads as follows:

"No firm, person, or corporation shall expose for sale on any sidewalk or pavement or other exposed place any fruit, vegetables or other articles of food which are eaten uncooked, and such fruit, vegetables or other articles of food are thoroughly screened and protected from flies, and unless they are on elevated stands at least twenty-four inches above the level of the sidewalk or pavement. Adopted by the Advisory Board, January 14, 1915."

The Committees are organizing to distribute thousands of pamphlets telling the story of the fly. These will be followed by thousands of swatters and posters.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

CORRECTION.

In our column last week an error was made in the names of officers elected. Mr. Joseph H. Nash was elected Treasurer. Mr. Joseph P. Simpson was elected Secretary.

DATES FOR FLOWER SHOWS.

At present, Saturday, June 4th, seems to be the best date for Peony and Rose Show, but the season will have to govern the exact date. The frost of March 28th injured the first shoots on Hybrid Tea Roses so that we will have to watch them carefully to learn about when the first bloom can be expected.

GLADIOLI EXHIBIT.

As several members are planting many of the new and better varieties of gladioli we will likely be able to make quite a fine display about July 30th.

DAHLIA SHOW.

September 24th, the fourth Saturday in September, seems to be the right date for this show. This means tubers should be planted about June 15th for best results. A schedule for vegetables to be planted about June 20th will also be included with the Dahlia Show.

with which they handled themselves and the accuracy with which they shot goals from long distances and difficult angles, won for them the hearty applause of the spectators.

But Don't Forget Mr. Fretz.

"It must be terrible to have eyesight like that!" sighed Doc Hartley, as Martin—standing almost at the extreme end of the cage—tossed a field goal that dropped into the basket without even so much as touching a single string in the basket net.

Martin also gave a fine exhibition of tossing goals from fouts, getting 9 out of 10 chances. But right here we want to say that Fretz, of the Tennis team, also did himself proud, getting 8 out of 9 chances, and in addition scored one of the three goals from field gathered in by the Tennis players. Wayne Harris also got one—and the first to be scored by his side, at that—and we must also credit Roy Williams with one. Nor should we neglect to say that Captain Smedley and his entire Tennis team put up a plucky battle throughout the whole contest. The line-up and score follow:

Minstrel Show Well Received

musical selection by the orchestra, and it was a Scout orchestra at that—a fact with which probably a good many in the audience were not familiar. Then Scoutmaster Patten spoke briefly, telling about the work of his boys and the value of their summer camp, for the benefit of which the entertainment was given.

Ernest Schults, Camp Director at Camp Delmont, was the next speaker, and he told about Boy Scout camp life—just what a day's program at the Scout camp consists of, and how the boys enjoy the camp and the good that it does them.

Showing Scouts in Action.

An impromptu patrol meeting of the Beaver Patrol proved to be one of the most interesting features of the evening. Alexander Burt, the leader of the Beaver Patrol, presided, and the following members of the patrol took regular Scout tests under the questioning of Scoutmaster Patten: Signaling, William Parker and Alfred Odiorne; Nature Study, Edward Gilfillen; Compass, Robert Gilfillen; First Aid, Russel Sharp; Knife, Hatchet and Ax, Herbert Burrell; History of the Flag, Ernest Cox. Scoutmaster Patten explained that the Scouts did not know, in advance, what questions he was going to ask them. Every Scout taking the tests did very well.

Then came a genuine old-time scout of the cowboy days of the Old West—Charles G. Skirdin, who told some interesting and thrilling experiences of his days as a cowboy and scout with Buffalo Bill.

Good Jokes and Lively Songs.

In the minstrel show, Francis Lambert proved himself to be a first-class interlocutor, and was ably assisted by the entire cast. The end men were Richard Odiorne and Wells Wanamaker, and the other comedians were Donald Brown, Joseph Snyder, Thomas Merkel, Ted Atkins, Gordon Rudolph and Robert Patten. Christopher Heron and Atherton Lane were the ballad singers, and the chorus included: Carl Metzger, Robert MacKinnon, Howard Vallette, Thomas Haney, Berthold Youngbluth, David Mumford, Harry Cunningham and Paul Longley. Donald Hoffman was stage manager, and Thomas McAuliffe was property man.

The solos were sung as follows: "Avalon," Christopher Heron; "Margie," Atherton Lane; "Cili Bien," Gordon Rudolph; "Feather Your Nest," Theodore Atkins; "Palestina," Joseph Snyder; "My Mammy," Donald Brown, and "I've Got a Bimbo Down in Bimbo Isle," Richard Odiorne.

A dance followed the minstrel show, and all in all it was a fine entertainment. Congratulations to Scoutmaster Patten and to every one of his Scouts.

Business of the Club followed, as well as announcements of the reception on Thursday evening to be given by the Junior Club to the Seniors, and of the Play and Cantata to be given by the Women's Community Club on the evening of April 29. The afternoon closed with a social hour, during which punch and home-made cakes were served. A "bird walk" is to be taken by many members of the Club. New books are constantly being added to our library. We are starting a campaign to increase the subscriptions to Our Town. Nominations for officers are being listed. In every respect this was a delightful and important meeting.

THE LITERATURE CLASS.

The Literature Class of the Women's Community Club held the last meeting of the season on Monday morning with Mrs. Robert F. Wood, of Avon Road. The greater part of the morning was spent in discussing "Potterism," by Rose Macaulay, which is generally considered one of the most important books of the year. Reference was made to the character and works of John Burroughs, the naturalist, whose funeral took place on Sunday, his eighty-fourth birthday.

The Literature Class will resume meetings in the fall, when it is hoped to extend the scope of the work.

"THE NEIGHBORS."

Rehearsals are being held for "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale, the play which is to be given by members of the Women's Community Club on Friday evening, April 29. Don't you want to see into what a state of agitation neighbors can be thrown when they learn that a young widow is to receive a little boy on the 7.58? Members of the cast include Mrs. Walker L. Owen, Mrs. Merritt Davis, Mrs. W. E. Blodgett, Mrs. Franklin Dunlop, Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, Mrs. C. A. Farmer, Mrs. Jesse Harris, Mrs. Robert Wood.

The play is being coached by Mrs. Norma Southworth.

COMMUNITY CLUB LIBRARY.

Since April 2 there have been added to the Library the following new books:

"Harriet and the Piper," Kathleen Norris.
"The Seventh Angel," Alexander Black.
"The Brimming Cup," Dorothy Canfield.
"The Trumpeter Swan," Temple Bailey.
Also five books have been received as gifts from members of the Community Club:
"Dawn O'Hara," Edna Ferber.
"The Charmed Life of Miss Austen," Samuel Merwin.
"Lewis Rand," Mary Johnston.
"The Harbor," Ernest Poole.
"You Never Know Your Luck," Gilbert Parker.

You are privileged to take books from the Library, whether you are a member of the Club or not.

Mr. Henry Rose and Postmaster Haws motored through portions of Berks and Chester Counties last Sunday. Farmers in those sections fear that the apple crop will be almost a complete failure, due to the severe frost.

The Standard Bearer Society of the M. E. Church met with Dorothy L. Chant on Tuesday evening. Twenty members were present. The program was given by Grace Woolcocks, George Purring and Dorothy Chalfant. Plans were made for a Thank Offering party to be given in May and a play which will be given in the near future.
